

Native American Clothing Drive

Sacred Heart of Mary parishioners collect clothing and some housewares to take to the Cheyenne River Indian Reservation in South Dakota. Volunteers sort, pack and drive a truck rented by the parish to deliver the materials to the Reservation.